New York City, July 23, 2014 | KADS NY is pleased to present the 2014 Celebrating Print Competition, and calls for submissions of fine art prints from artists worldwide of Czech or Slovak background. Prints, juried by visual artist, printmaker and curator Eva Nikolova, will be on view at BBLA Gallery at Bohemian National Hall in New York City from December 8, 2014 until January 15, 2015. Cash prizes will be awarded.

All fine art printmaking media, including intaglio, relief prints, lithography, silkscreen, monotype, and monoprint, are eligible. Digital prints are eligible only if they incorporate other methods of hand pulled printing. Art must be hand-pulled and generated on stone, block, or plate using the printing process. The presented works must have been created between 2010 and 2014.

Eligible artists must be of Czech or Slovak background (citizenship, ancestry) or must have graduated from a Czech or Slovak art school. CPC 2014 will be juried by Bulgarian-born, New York-based visual artist, printmaker and curator Eva Nikolova.

Submission deadline: Friday, October 10, 2014, 6:00 pm EST

Fee: $30 (return shipping included) for images of up to 3 prints

Print paper size limit: 18 x 24 inches (45 x 60 cm) (paper size up to 24 x 36 inches, 60 x 90 cm, will be accepted for additional fee of $20)

Juror's selection announced: Friday, October 24, 2014, 6:00 pm EST

Delivery of selected prints: Friday, November 28, 6:00 pm EST

Exhibition on view: December 8, 2014 – January 15, 2015 at BBLA Gallery, New York City

Submissions can be done electronically or by mail. For more information, CPC 2014 Rules & Regulations and to download CPC.2014 Prospectus, visit the competition website www.kadsny.com/cpc2014 or email celebratingprint@gmail.com.

The inaugural competition CPC.2014 is organized by New York-based studio KADS NY under the auspices of Consulate General of the Czech Republic in New York and
